A series of experiential Shamanic workshops on ancient wisdom. Join teacher and modern-day shamanic healer, JOHN ENGLISH and his assistants, beginning with the:

Journey of the South:

The South work is about renewal and healing. The South is the direction of energy and power. To have a realization of your Self and embody the power of your birthright, you must first shed your social conditioning as the serpent sheds its skin. This is done mythically and energetically with the energy work and rites of transmission you receive in the South. This work changes your perception about your past, thus freeing you from it, so that your past can inform you with power instead of suffering and the repeating of old patterns.

Journey of the East:

The East work is about claiming your freedom and moving into grace. The East is the direction of Time and Clarity. In this direction you will be presented with freedom and learn to fly wing to wing with the Great Spirit. You will remember to use your birthright of impeccable vision and take responsibility for how you assemble your life and this world. You will embark on the path of your destiny and begin to dream the world into being with Clarity, on purpose, and outside of Space and Time. You will receive the star rites, become the mythmaker and take a hold of your mantle of freedom!

Journey of the West:

The West work is about moving beyond fear, death and violence. The West is the direction of Space and Heart. In this direction you heal your biological and karmic lineages. When you do this you have more Space for your Divine Self and your choices become your own! When you have done the energy work and received the rites of passage in the West you are able to more consistently remember and use your true identity: that of Spirit. After the work of the West fear transforms into awareness, death becomes transformation and violence is replaced by Heart.

Journey of the North:

The North work is about moving into the state of being where it is possible to master the physical plane. The North is the direction of Matter and Strength. In the North you join the Shamans, Saints, Sages, Toltec's and Masters who have made the journey before you back into the Totality of the Self. By the time you have made it to the North your perception has changed about everything, most importantly about yourself, and who you really are. This will allow for the Strength that comes from fluidity of perception. With fluid perception you will begin to assemble your life with mastery. With the rites of the masters transmitted to you in the North you begin wearing this world like a loose garment.

Testimonials

"The Medicine Wheel has had a very positive impact on my life. I have developed a stronger relationship with the earth and I have learned many tools to be more grounded, empowered and aware of the world around me. I have become close to a wonderful group of people who share my interest in learning to live with joy and release all fear and suffering from my life. The Medicine Wheel practices have complemented my interests in yoga, knowing my true Self and healing karmic issues in the life. I am grateful to John and the Universe for the opportunity to experience the Medicine Wheel."

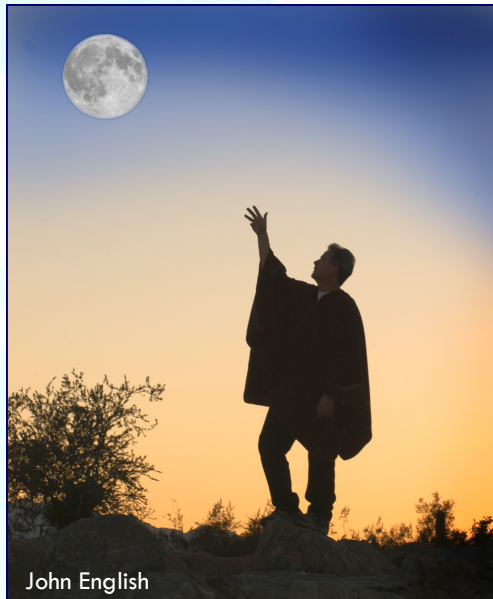

- Anne M., Arizona

"I started with John about a year before the medicine wheel. There have been amazing outcomes to the work I have done with John English. Prior to the Medicine Wheel he did some clearing work in relation to my allergies, which have been with me for 46 of my 48 years. Since I left John's office that day 2 years ago, I have not had a single allergy-related symptom. I was quite skeptical going in, but from that I was inspired to do the medicine wheel work. After doing the south work I was so amazed by the difference in me and the way I viewed life that I will finish the four directions in April and look forward to all the work that follows. John English has been one of the most influential teachers in my life and he's had that impact while guiding me through the Medicine wheel with a group of remarkable men and women in a very short time."

- Michael L., Scottsdale, AZ

"Working with John and attending the medicine wheel has been a life transformation. I highly suggest that if you are reading this testimonial then perhaps it is time for you to embark on the journey..."

- John T., Redondo Beach, CA

"The Journey on the medicine wheel has brought me to a different and beautiful level. A place of bliss, excitement and connection. It's a journey that you can't explain in words...it must be walked upon."

- Tina S., Arizona

"This was the most magical journey I have ever taken, offering a hands-on experience like no other. I continue to use the invaluable wisdom and tools learned from these sacred directions. There is such a great truth that emerges from this ancient wisdom. Each direction teaches you more about your true Self. Don't miss this opportunity to learn, grow and experience life at its fullest."

- Vicki C., Arizona

"I can truly say that no one event in my life has so positively impacted me with such significance as the Medicine Wheel training. I have embraced my whole life in a way I did not even know was possible."

- Tom H., Illinois

"The Medicine Wheel was a truly illuminating experience. It provided an opportunity for growth in both my personal and business life, allowing me to have more clarity, focus and sense of purpose. I strongly recommend participation for those individuals who have received the call for change."

- Ian M., California
